Easter Message from the Pastor

When I was still a seminary student and serving my internship year in New Jersey, there was a particularly hard winter and late spring thaw—like this year here! The church where I was serving had repaved their parking lot the previous summer, and accidentally paved over part of a flower bed. Shortly before Easter, with icy snow still covering the ground, the flowers which had been planted in that bed came bursting up again.

It was quite a sight to see these bright spring flowers, scattered like beautiful jewels amidst the sparkling snow. Even more amazing was that they came up not only through six or more inches of snow and ice, they first penetrated at least that much frozen earth and hard black asphalt.

The traditional Easter lily and other spring flowers are a very meaningful symbol for the real significance of Easter. Just as these dormant plants break through the ground in glorious bloom, Jesus Christ rose from the tomb on Easter morn, and all who die in Christ will also rise on the Last Day to eternal life.

You probably have, and sometime in the future will once again, watch as a dear loved one's body is lowered into a grave. The lifeless body that we lay to rest is like a dormant seed, planted in the ground. The Easter lily and other spring flowers are a symbol not only of Christ's resurrection but of your hope that you and your loved ones who are asleep in Jesus will rise with him to eternal life. As the Apostle Paul says in 2 Corinthians 4:14, "We know that He who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus."

Bring your family and holiday guests to celebrate the joy of Easter at the annual Community Sunrise Service at Holy Cross on Easter Sunday, April 4 at 7:00am, with a second Easter service at 9:15am.

Pastor Kevin Vogts

You are invited to a Community Sunrise Service at Holy Cross on Easter Sunday, April 4 at 7:00am. This simple service will feature the Easter story and favorite Easter hymns. A second Easter Service, with Holy Communion, will be held at the regular time of 9:15am.

Easter Sunrise Service is one of the most moving and meaningful worship opportunities of the year. Bring your family and holiday guests to celebrate the real significance of Easter. This is a wonderful opportunity to invite family, friends, neighbors, etc.—everyone enjoys Easter Sunrise services!

Holy Cross is again sponsoring a Community Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 3 (day before Easter) at 10:30am on the church grounds.

This event is for the entire community, and all children up to age 10 are welcome. Last year over 100 children and at least that many adults attended. This event is becoming a real community tradition. There will be plenty of eggs, prizes, snacks and an Easter video.

Bring your children and grandchildren, invite your children's friends and neighbor's children.

Services for Maundy Thursday on April 1 and Good Friday on April 2 are at 7:00pm. The Maundy Thursday service will include Holy Communion.

Bring your family to meditate on our Savior's sacrifice for your salvation.

Following the Easter Sunrise Service on Easter Sunday, April 4, the Youth Group will host an Easter Breakfast in the Fellowship Hall. A free-will offering will be taken. Everyone is invited!

The deadline for signing up to donate Easter lilies through the church office from Mosher's Garden Center is Palm Sunday, March 28.

However, you are still welcome to bring plants you purchase elsewhere or receive as gifts. Please still sign up, noting that you will bring your own plants, and drop them by the church during Holy Week, or on the Saturday before Easter during or just after the Easter Egg Hunt (when we will be arranging the lilies), or even on Easter Sunday morning.

A complete list of all the Easter lily donations will appear in the May newsletter.

New Bible Class
"Bible 101"
Starts April 11

There will be no Bible Class or Sunday School on Easter Sunday, April 4. On Sunday, April 11 we will begin a new study in Adult Bible Class, Bible 101: An Introduction to Understanding the Bible. Learn the history and structure of the Bible, principles of Bible interpretation, and how to apply the Bible to your life.

Join in Sunday mornings at 10:30am in the Fellowship Hall!

Our congregation has designated a tithe of 10% of our general offerings to support the work of our District and Synod. Each month we remember in prayer in our worship services specific missionaries around the world who are supported in this way by our congregation.

Lutheran Lecture Series April 24

You are invited to a free lecture series featuring four interesting Lutheran speakers. The Lutheran Lecture Series-Midwest will be held on Saturday, April 24 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Marcus, Iowa. This year's topic is, "The Church and the Civil Realm."

- Dr. Adam Franciso of Concordia Theological Seminary, Ft. Wayne, Indiana will speak on "Making Sense of Pluralism: A Worldview Overview."
- Dr. Korey Maas of Concordia University, Irvine, California will speak on "Church, State, and Abortion: What Can We Learn from Antiquity?"
- Rev. Bryan Wolfmuller of Hope Lutheran Church, Aurora, Colorado will speak on "The Ten Commandments in the News: Understanding Contemporary Events in Light of the Catechism."

Registration, coffee and donuts begins at 9:00am. The formal activities start at 9:45am and will continue until 11:45am when everyone will break for lunch, which will be provided by the host congregation's youth group. The afternoon's lectures will begin at 1:00pm and finish by 3:30pm. A short service of Vespers will follow, and the day's activities will conclude by 4:00pm.

This is a great chance to hear some interesting Lutheran speakers close to home, and there is no charge.

From the south edge of Marcus, Trinity Lutheran Church is four miles south of the intersection of Highway 3 and 143 (Marcus Junction Cafe on corner) and then turn west on C-38 and go one mile.

If you plan to attend please email Jon Dorr (jdorr@midlands.net). You can also speak with Jon for more information.

April Commemoration

You may have noticed on our church calendar that in addition to members' birthdays and anniversaries there are also listed historic commemorations of some of our forbearers in the faith. A list of such occasions commonly observed in the Lutheran Church is included on pages xi-xiii in the front of Lutheran Service Book. The following brief description is from the Treasury of Daily Prayer.

St. Mark, Evangelist (April 25)

St. Mark was the author of the second Gospel, which he composed, according to some Early Church Fathers, when the Christians in Rome asked him to write down the preaching of the apostle Peter.

Mark, also known as John Mark, was originally from Jerusalem, where the house of his mother Mary was the center of the early Jerusalem Church (Acts 12:12). He was brought from Jerusalem by Paul and Barnabas to Antioch (Acts 12:25), and it was from this city that they set out on the first missionary journey.

When Paul and Barnabas were preparing to go on the second missionary journey, Barnabas wanted to take Mark with them again, but Paul objected because Mark had left them during the first journey. Barnabas took Mark and went to Cyprus, while Paul took Silas as his new companion (Acts 15:37-40). Later, Paul reconciled with Mark and was working with him again (Colossians 4:10; Philemon 24; 2 Timothy 4:11).

Finally, Mark was found laboring with Peter in Rome (1 Peter 5:13). Tradition says that Mark was instrumental in founding the Church in Alexandria, becoming its first bishop, and also that he suffered a martyr's death.

SATURDAY Worship

Summer Saturday Service Scheduled

At the Quarterly Business Meeting in January the Voters Assembly voted to hold a Summer Saturday Service this year, during the months of June, July, and August.

The Saturday service will be at 5:30pm and will be a shortened version of the service for the following Sunday, with the same sermon. Holy Communion will be celebrated at this service each week.

Seminaries Make Extensive Video Library Available Free Online

In a joint effort Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, and Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, are releasing a compilation of educational videos available via their Web sites.

This collection of more than 1,100 videos covers Old and New Testament, Pastoral Theology and individual books of the Bible which were originally part of the Distance Education Leading To Ordination (DELTO) courses made available through the Concordia University Education Network (CUEnet).

You will find fascinating, college and seminary level lectures by some of our finest scholars—all free! Simply visit <http://media.ctsfw.edu/> and type in a topic in the Search box.

Sunday School Topics for April

April 4—No Sunday School due to Easter.

April 11—Today in Sunday School, the children learned that we, like Thomas, doubt what we cannot see (John 20:19–31). Through His Spirit, God gives us eyes of faith that we might see Jesus in Word and Sacrament and believe in Him.

Discuss with your family times when it was hard to trust and believe in the promises of God. Talk about faith and where it comes from (the Holy Spirit). In your catechism review, study the Third Article of the Apostles' Creed and its explanation.

April 18—Today in Sunday School, the children learned how Jesus revealed Himself to the disciples after Easter in another miraculous catch of fish (John 21:1–14).

As a family, talk about how Jesus reveals Himself to us in the means of grace, calling us to be disciples and giving us Easter joy. Especially discuss the blessings of Baptism and how through water and God's Word each of us puts on Christ. What does that mean for your lives now and in eternity?

April 25—Jesus calls Himself our shepherd (John 10:22–30). In Sunday School today, the children learned how we are all like sheep who have gone astray.

As a family, talk about this Good Shepherd Jesus, who rescues, gathers, and cares for us through His Word and Sacraments. In what ways has He rescued you? Where can we find our Shepherd? (In His Word and Sacraments.) Review the blessings of Baptism and the Lord's Supper in the Catechism.

HOLY CROSS Women in Mission

Women In Mission will be collecting personal hygiene items such as bars of soap, shampoo, conditioner, lotions, etc. for the Council for Sexual Abuse & Domestic Violence. These can be both travel-size and full-size. Look for the basket in the Gathering Room. This project will continue throughout the next six months. Let's see how often we can fill the basket!

All women are invited to join in on April 14 for a fun program by Fran Briggs as she presents her Washday Program at Stoneybrook Assisted Living. Come enjoy fellowship with the residents and with your Sisters in Christ. The program starts at 9:30am sharp at Stoneybrook. No regular meeting. Please RSVP to the church office (232-9117) if you will be attending.
